Small Okanagan Restaurant Wins Big in Vancouver

For Immediate Release

Kelowna, BC (May 26, 2010) – The results are in from the 21st Annual Vancouver Magazine Restaurant Awards and Waterfront Restaurant & Wine Bar has once again emerged as the best in the Okanagan.

Hosted annually, the Restaurant Awards are a celebration of great food, smart pricing and intuitive service. In the category of ‘Best Okanagan’, one small eatery stood out above the rest; “It’s an unprepossessing little place (and not on the water), but Waterfront Restaurant & Wine Bar won Gold because of the fine dishes that emerge, almost miraculously, from its tiny kitchen.”

“To win this award two years in a row is a great honour” explains Waterfront’s accomplished Chef/Sommelier Mark Filatow. “We take pride in our food and our region; using fresh, seasonal Okanagan ingredients we have developed a continually evolving menu that reflects all that our region has to offer.”

Esteemed judges for the Vancouver Magazine Restaurant Awards included DJ Kearney, Deana Lancaster, Mia Stainsby, Tim Pawsey and BC Restaurant Hall of Fame inductees Sid Cross and Jamie Maw.
